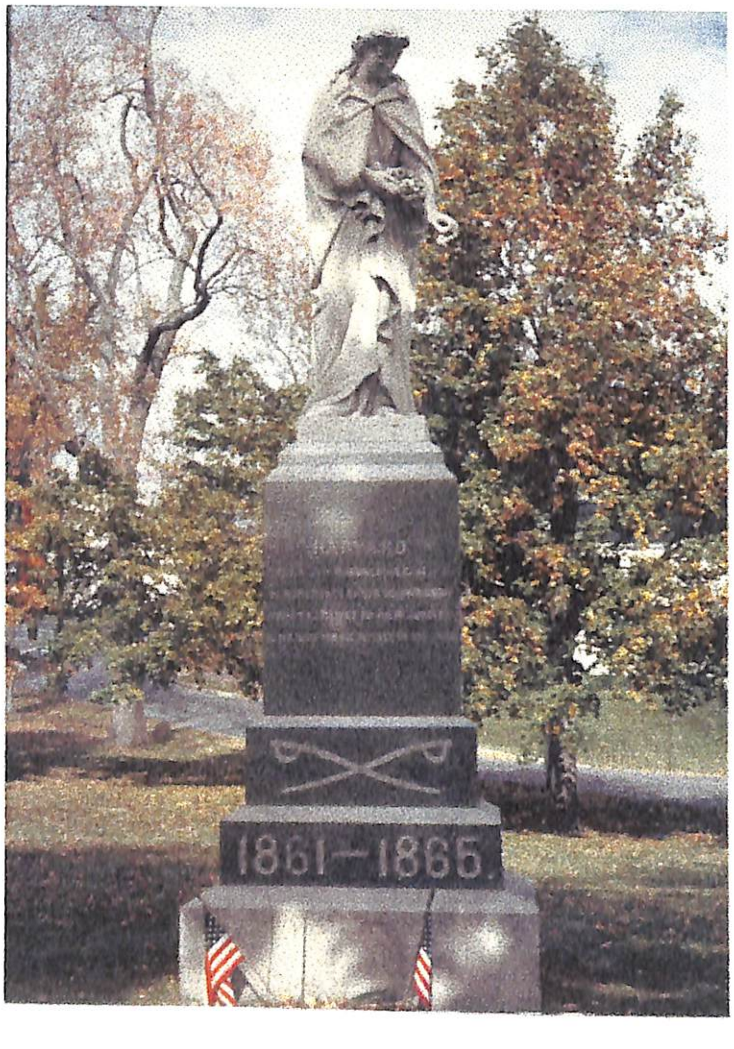
CIVIL WAR MONUMENTS

Volume 2
Dalton to Lynn



Harvard Monument

When the children ask their fathers what mean yet by these stone?

Then ye shall answer them

When treason reared its head to destroy the government

These men gave their lives so that the union might be maintained

With justice to all.

LANCASTER

Title:

Location: Memorial Library

Inscription: This edifice to the sole honor and memory, under God, of those brave and loyal volunteers native or resided to Lancaster, who fell maintaining the nation's cause in the battles of the Great Rebellion, is erected on the verge a field long used by the inhabitants as a military mustering ground, and near the fifth building of the town's first church, instituted 1653
The grass witherth and the flower thereof falleth away, but the world of the lord endureth forever.

Within its walls the public records of the town, wasted by fire and other accident, and also the town's library founded in 1862, are now more safely than heretofore deposited.

Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it. Except the Lord and keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

The memorial virtue is immoral. When it is perfect men take example at it, when it is gone. they desire it.

This building began and completed A.D. 1887-8, is dedicated to their fellow citizens, to the sacred memory of those men of Lancaster who gave their lives for the integrity of the Republic, in the Civil War, 1861 – 1865

We can never be deathless till we die. It is the dead win battle. No, the brave shall never die, being deathless thy but change their country's vows for more – their country's heart.

LYNN – SOLDIERS MOMUMENT

Title:	Soldiers Monument
Location:	City Hall Square, Common and Commercial Streets
Inscription:	Lynn, to the memory of her sons slain in the defense of the nation, 1873
Artist:	John Adams Jackson
Foundry Fabricator:	Royal Foundry
Dedicated:	September 17, 1873
Cost:	$30,000
Construction:	Sculptures – bronze, Base - granite

History: The monument has three allegorical figures. The base is topped by a figure representing the city of Lynn. At the base are victory, war and justice. The figures were cast in Florence, the residence of the artist. Apparently the design was not as attractive to all Lynn's citizens as it was reported that "there are many who preferred designs and figures more indicative of the times they were made to commemorate."
